FORWARD THINKING

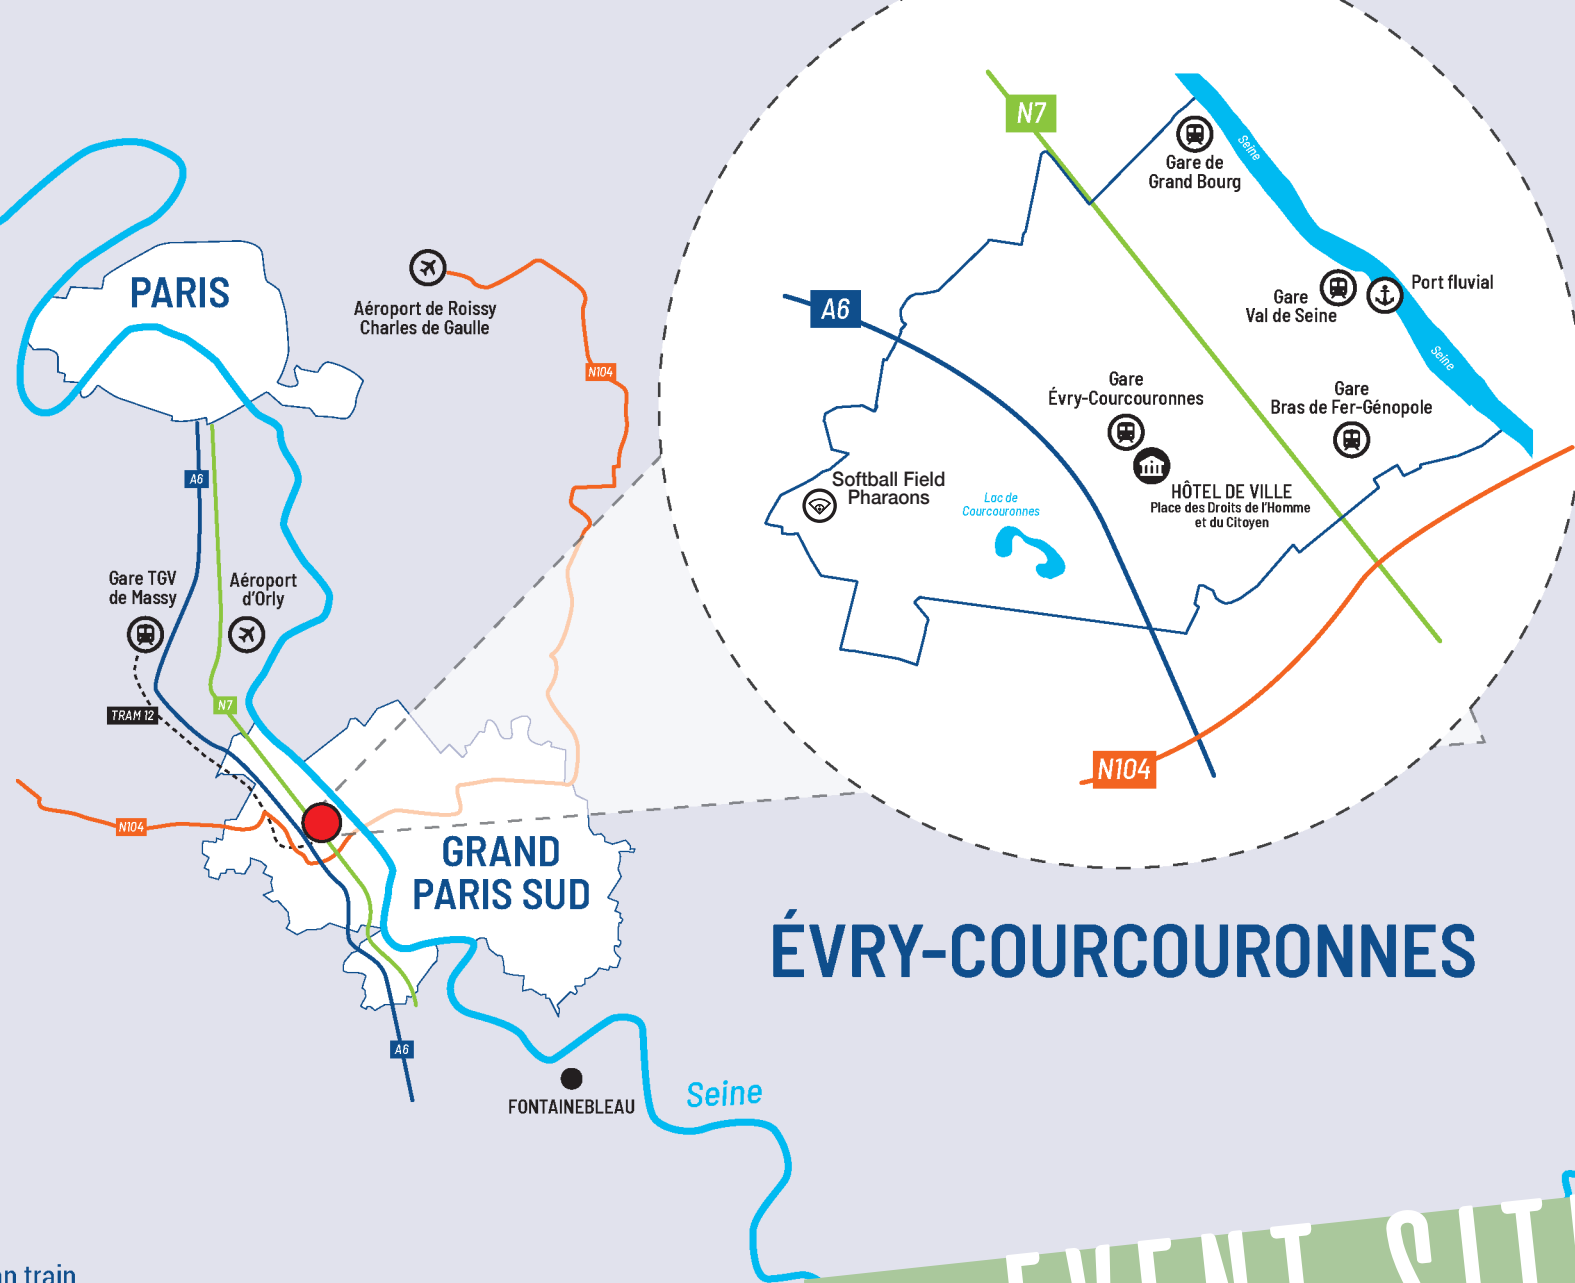

The largest commune nouvelle (new municipality) of the Île-de-France region, the city of Evry-Courcouronnes was created on January 1, 2019. The fusion of the two cities, Evry and Courcouronnes, was a decision motivated by the presence of shared priorities among inhabitants and buoyed by the ambition to bolster public services: optimisation of public utilities, increased solidarity and improved quality of life. A city at the heart of a sustainable and vibrant ecosystem, Evry-Courcouronnes is a major player in the French capital region.
