

newsletter

SOFTBALL EUROPE NEWS

Looking back upon 2020, Softball Europe President Gabriel Waage comments: "I would like to thank all of you for keeping your national competitions and tournaments alive. I know this season was very challenging and each game, which was played, counts."

Check out the 2020 European National Champions:

Italy: after a fifteen-year long wait, Bollate conquered the 13th Italian National title (more info)

Netherlands: the board of the KNBSB made the decision not to declare a National Champion for the 2020 season (more info)

Czech Republic: team Joudrs is the 2020 Czech Women's National Champion (more info) and Men's Czech Title went back to Havlíčkův Brod (more info)

Russia: RusStar Softball won the Russian National Championship (more info)

Spain: CBS Rivas became the Spanish National Champion for the second consecutive year (more info)

Germany: the Wessling Vermins just became the 2020 German Champion (more info)

Poland: Panthers Wrocław Softball is the 2020 Polish National Champion (more info)

Ukraine: for the third time in history, Kropyvnytskyi won the Ukrainian softball National Championship (more info)

Austria: the 2020 Austrian CoEd Slowpitch Champions is the Linz Witches & Bandits (more info) and the Witches Linz also became the Women's Austrian National Champion (more info)

Croatia: Princ is the 2020 Women's Croatian Champions and Medvednica is the (more info)

Switzerland: The Swiss Women's National Champion is the Zurich Barracudas (more info) and the Swiss Toros are the Slowpitch National Champions (more info)

Slovakia: BK Apollo is the 2020 Slovakian National Champion (more info)

Denmark: the Odense Giants won the 2020 Women's Danish title (more info) and the Stenløse Bulls conquered their seventh Men's Danish Title (more info)

Serbia: The 2020 Serbian COED slowpitch National Champion is Team Voša (more info)

Bulgaria: the Akademiks are the 2020 Bulgarian National Champions (more info)

The registration process to the 2021 European Softball Championships and Cups is open. National Federations will have to send the Entry Forms by today, December 31, 2020. All the info here.

DID YOU MISS THE ESCA HOLIDAY SPECIAL?
watch it here

Collecchio Softball Club, home of the European M. Romeo Youth Trophy, launched a crowdfunding campaign to build the stands for their softball field.

MORE INFO

SIGN UP NOW

Become a member!

Sign up to ESCA
the EUROPEAN SOFTBALL
COACHES ASSOCIATION